II. AFFILIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

Miscellaneous Information

Affiliation with ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS And Connection With Racial Incident Which Occurred in Monroe, North Carolina, August 27, 1961

On December 2, 1960, NY T-3, advised that ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS stated that he had been in touch with the subject and was receiving excellent cooperation from him.

The December 10, 1960, issue of "The Crusader", a weekly news letter formerly published by ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS, Monroe, North Carolina, reflected in an article on page 6, Volume 2, Number 19, that the subject had visited Monroe, North Carolina, on a mercy trip bringing clothing to the needy.

On July 3, 1961, NY T-3 advised that the subject had arrived in Monroe, North Carolina, and was visiting ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS, 410 Boyte Street, Monroe, North Carolina.

NY 100-120145

On August 30, 1961, [redacted]
[redacted], Bronx, New York, advised SAS [redacted] and [redacted], that he arrived in Monroe, North Carolina, in the capacity of a "Freedom Rider" on Thursday, August 17, 1961. [redacted] advised that the subject arrived in Monroe, North Carolina, August 2, 1961, driving a late model red Nash Rambler, and the subject was in the company of [redacted]. [redacted] related that on August 26, 1961, he paid the subject $10.00 for a ride from Monroe,
North Carolina, to New York City, on Sunday afternoon, August 27, 1961. However, a race riot broke out in Monroe, late Sunday afternoon, on the latter date, and after the riot, MAYFIELD and his automobile had disappeared along with ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS, WILLIAMS' family, and [redacted] [redacted].

On August 30, 1961, [redacted]
[redacted], North Carolina, advised SAS [redacted]
and [redacted], that during the latter part of August, 1961, the subject stayed at his residence for approximately one week. [redacted] stated that the subject was a writer or publisher in New York City, and was engaged in picketing of the Monroe, North Carolina Court House prior to the race riot which occurred on August 27, 1961.

b6
b7C

On September 2, 1961, [redacted] furnished a voluntary signed statement to SAS [redacted] and [redacted]. In this statement, [redacted] related that on Sunday, August 27, 1961, he accompanied the subject, in the subject's automobile to the Union County Court House area to pick up some of the "Freedom Riders". While in the square, a race riot broke out and they returned to ROBERT WILLIAMS' residence. [redacted] stated that later in the evening, the subject came to his residence driving his automobile. After dinner, [redacted] and the subject, who was armed with a rifle, laid down in [redacted] yard to repel possible white invaders. [redacted] related that approximately one half hour later, ROBERT WILLIAMS, [redacted], and [redacted], ran into his yard. After a short conversation with the subject, WILLIAMS

NY 100-120145

and his family and [redacted] all got into the subject's automobile and left Monroe.

On April 10, 1950, NY T-7 advised that ROBERT F. WILLIAMS attended a CP meeting which was held in the Headquarters Office of the CP, USA, District 22, Room 14, Brown Building, Charleston, West Virginia, in April, 1950. According to the informant, WILLIAMS, who was a student at the time at West Virginia State College, Institute, West Virginia, was teaching Communism to other students at the school and claimed that he had taken Communist leaflets and newspapers and placed them in various places at the school so other students would find them.

On August 28, 1961, an authorized complaint was filed before United States Commissioner ROBERT L. SCOTT, Western District of North Carolina, Charlotte, North Carolina, by SA [redacted], charging ROBERT WILLIAMS with Unlawful Flight To Avoid Prosecution for the crime of kidnapping, in violation of Title 18, Section 1073, United States Code, in that WILLIAMS fled the State of North Carolina, to avoid prosecution for the crime of kidnapping.

On October 6, 1961, NY T-8 advised that ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS had fled to Havana, Cuba.

BOOKS

A novel about integration

AFTER TWO excellent novels —The Hit and The Long Night—Julian Mayfield has written a third work of major power and dimension, The Grand Parade.^{*} Given a prodigious storytelling talent plus a theme as immediate as today's headlines and a sizzling exposure of sin and corruption in what might be Any City, U.S.A., how can the book fail to be alive and absorbing? The city, Gainesboro, is a "border" town (actually, it might be Montgomery, Little Rock, New Orleans and a bit of Harlem rolled into one), and the struggle for school integration is the heart of the book and the center around which all its characters are polarized.

Mayfield concentrates so much into his canvas that it becomes an attempt to depict an entire social system at a time of upheaval. He is the first, I believe, to tell the story of what happens behind the scenes in a town when a mortal struggle for integration is taking place. The whole complex range of relationships is set forth on many levels in both Negro and white communities. Politicians, racketeers, prostitutes, gamblers, an ex-Communist and a complement of FBI men—as well as liberals whose guts are never equal to their protestations, and nice people who only ask to be left alone to pursue the split-level American dream.

IF THE STORY can be said to center on any two of the characters, they would be Douglas Taylor, the liberal mayor, and Randolph Banks, Negro councilman—both inoffensive yet ambitious men caught in a clash of forces too big for them. Taylor wants to become a U.S. Senator so badly that he exposes the skulduggery of the men who put him into power. In retaliation, they ignite the fires of a race war because they think it will block his re-election. Banks—genial, easygoing, married to a genteel Boston girl, father of two sons, owner of a hard-won four-bedroom brick house in a pleasant neighborhood—lives under the shadow of two threats to his political tenure: his brother Lonnie, an ex-Communist who re-deadly as a barracuda; smooth, silver-haired, silver-tongued, he transforms the embattled mothers of the town and the rabble without a cause into a howling, bloodthirsty mob.

FOR EVERY WHITE sinner in the town there is a Negro counterpart. The author writes with stripped-down, almost photographic power and naked frankness. Almost all of his characters harbor at least one awful skeleton; almost all are driven by the desire for political power, for money, for the safe berth and for social status. But the pulse of Mayfield's own commitment to justice and decency can always be felt amid his regret that his Negro brothers must emulate the shoddy patterns of the society of which they are a disinherited part.

Sometimes the book seems a little frightening in its expertise; a kind of O'Hara professionalism and sensationalism creep in here and there; and the effort to encompass the lives of so many people robs some of them of their depth, particularly the women. Disturbing, too, is the somewhat cynical view of left-wing groups and their contribution to the fight for equal rights, as well as Mayfield's failure to make enough note of the power and courage of the Negro struggle in the South right now, a struggle carried out not without the participation of some white friends.

EVENING NEWS March 29 and 30 published first two of series articles by US Negro writer Julian Mayfield on trial Mrs. Mae Mallory that purportedly followed Monroe North Carolina race disturbances last August. In questionable, inflammatory article Mayfield says, "Mrs. Mallory fighting for life in Cleveland after Governor Ohio yielded to pressures white supremacists, North Carolina and ordered Mallory extradited to that state to stand trial on fallacious charge kidnapping that grew out of Monroe race riots last August." Article also reports that Robert F. Williams, former Monroe President NAACP, "now political exile in revolutionary Cuba, fugitive from southern justice, sought by US on same charge".

In view further upcoming articles this subject and anticipated unfavorable reaction, we require soonest full background information author Mayfield who purportedly was "only reporter present at Monroe race riots last August," and full background information on trial Mrs. Mae Mallory, including her present status.

Nomination for Julian Mayfield

By George Breitman

DETROIT — If I had the authority to give an award for the best article of 1961, I think I would give it to "Challenge to Negro Leadership — The Case of Robert Williams" by Julian Mayfield, which appeared in the magazine Commentary in April 1961.

Without any disrespect for The Militant, which printed many fine articles too, Mayfield's was in my opinion unrivaled among those I read last year for excellence of style and serious handling of an important theme.

In it Mayfield, author of three novels, told the story of Robert F. Williams and the movement he led in Monroe, N.C. That alone would make it worth reading, because it is a dramatic story. But Mayfield also related Williams and Monroe to their national background, showing that they represented the emergence of a new young leadership offering a serious challenge to the middle-class legalistic and pacifist spokesmen in the struggle for Negro equality.

For several months after Mayfield's article appeared I kept telling everyone who would listen that it was itself an important event in that struggle, and that no one could consider himself fully informed about current moods and trends in the Negro movement until he had read it.

After a few months, however, Commentary informed me that it had run out of the reprints it had prepared of the article and that the April 1961 issue was all sold out.

I then tried to get some people in Detroit to raise money and get permission from the author and magazine to reprint it as a pamphlet and help give it further national circulation. For various reasons this fell through.

So I am now happy to report that I have just learned of the republication of the Mayfield article in a readily accessible and inexpensive form.

A few months ago Ballantine Books, which in recent years has published many important paperback books on civil liberties, peace and Cuba, put out a book called The Nonconformers — Articles of Dissent, edited by David Evanier and Stanley Silverzweig.

This is a collection of articles from various periodicals, mostly liberal, in 1960 and 1961. The very first article in the book, and the longest, is Mayfield's.

So the word should be spread, especially among those who have become interested in Monroe and Williams because of the frame-up "kidnap" trial involving them that is scheduled to take place this month. It's available in most bookshops that carry big paperback collections.

The Mayfield article by itself is worth the 50¢ this book costs. As a bonus, readers will find some other good ones among the 29 additional articles included.

(S) [REDACTED] This information indicated that JULIAN MAYFIELD is a U.S. citizen of the Negro race, who at the present time is serving as a Special Correspondent in the Republic of Ghana, Africa, and is writing articles for the EVENING NEWS, Accra, Ghana. (S)

(U) This information further indicated that MAYFIELD is fully in sympathy with the Cuban Revolutionary Government and that he has done an excellent job in making favorable publicity in Africa concerning the Cuban revolution, and pointing out to the Africans the difficulties that the Negroes have to endure in the United States. (S)

(U) This information further indicated that MAYFIELD is not using his name in connection with the articles he is writing for the EVENING NEWS, but describes himself as an Anonymous Special Correspondent. It is further pointed out that MAYFIELD, in his articles, is reviewing the unfair treatment meted out to WILLIAM WORTHY, Jr. by the United States government, and that WORTHY is the first American citizen to stand trial for "reentering the land of his birth illegally." The information further indicated that this charge, which has been placed against (U)

(U) WORTHY, is ridiculous, and would be laughed out of Court if the trial of WORTHY, which was scheduled on August 7 and 8, 1962, had not taken place in Southern Florida, U.S.A., and if WORTHY were not a black man. (S)

(U) It was also pointed out that WORTHY had the wrath of the United States authorities brought down upon him because he was critical of J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the FBI, and that MAYFIELD, in his articles concerning WORTHY, by necessity has also been critical of the FBI. It is for this reason that MAYFIELD is not using his name in connection with his articles for the EVENING NEWS, inasmuch as he fears reprisals by the FBI when he returns to the United States, and that he may be "a second WILLIAM WORTHY." (S)

(U) It was also stated that MAYFIELD has pointed out that even though the United States would be successful in invading Cuba, which apparently it is planning at this time, imperialism is bound to be doomed inasmuch as the Cuban Revolution has left its imprint upon the downtrodden people of Latin America, and has shown the way for their liberation. (S)

Indices of the Miami Office contain no identifying data concerning JULIAN MAYFIELD. Inasmuch as the Miami Office has no background information concerning MAYFIELD, the Miami Office is opening a new 105 case on MAYFIELD, and this case will be maintained in a pending status pending receipt of results of investigation conducted by the New York Office.

The New York Office is requested to search its indices and other logical sources identifying MAYFIELD, and furnish to the Miami Office and the Bureau all information which previously has not been furnished.

NY 100-120145

JULIAN HUDSON MAYFIELD, subject of NY 100-120145, is being recommended for inclusion in "Section A" of the Reserve Index of the New York Office in view of his employment as a free-lance writer, and in view of his reported CP sympathies, and possible CP membership as late as 1955.

The "Daily Worker" issue of 2/5/51, on page 8, column 4, contained an article which states that JULIAN MAYFIELD was one of a group of actors who collected money to send representatives to Washington, D.C., to mourn four members of the "Martinsville Seven" who had been executed in Virginia.

The "Daily Worker" is a former East coast daily Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

The "Daily Worker" issue of 8/2/51, page 7, column 3, contained an article which identified JULIAN MAYFIELD as Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro in the Arts, 261 West 125th Street, New York City.

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on 1/30/52, that an address by JULIAN MAYFIELD, actor, was made up and sent out by the New York Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

The "Daily Worker" issue of 2/9/53, on page 6, column 2, under the heading "What's On" contained information to the effect that JULIAN MAYFIELD was to direct the play, "The Big Deal" for "fund raising". The term "fund raising" was not further identified or described.

The "Daily Worker" issue of February 11, 1953, on page 7, column 1, contained an article which related that JULIAN MAYFIELD appeared in a play under the auspices of the Civil Rights Congress (CRC).

[redacted] San Juan, Puerto Rico, who was in a position to furnish reliable information, appeared at the San Juan Office of the FBI on 8/29/60, and advised that he erroneously received a letter from Norfolk, Virginia, which was addressed to Mr. JULIAN MAYFIELD, in care of [redacted] San Juan, Puerto Rico, and which he opened by mistake. The letter was from an individual known as [redacted] and [redacted] expressed his interest and concern in Cuba and his volunteering to render assistance to the Cuban government. The letter also contained a copy of another letter dated 7/18/60 which had been sent to the Honorable FIDEL CASTRO, Premier, the Republic of Cuba and related that CASTRO's cause had two very staunch friends. This information further indicated that MAYFIELD is fully in sympathy with the Cuban Revolutionary Government and that he has done an excellent job in making favorable publicity in Africa concerning the Cuban revolution, and pointing out to the Africans the difficulties that the Negroes have to endure in the United States. (S) (U)

~~SECRET~~

NY 100-120145

This information further indicated that MAYFIELD is not using his name in connection with the articles he is writing for the EVENING NEWS, but describes himself as an Anonymous Special Correspondent. It is further pointed out that MAYFIELD, in his articles, is reviewing the unfair treatment meted out to WILLIAM WORTHY, Jr. by the United States government, and that WORTHY is the first American citizen to stand trial for "reentering the land of his birth illegally." The information further indicated that this charge, which has been placed against WORTHY, is ridiculous, and would be laughed out of Court if the trial of WORTHY, which was scheduled on August 7 and 8, 1962, had not taken place in Southern Florida, U. S. A., and if WORTHY were not a black man. ~~(S)~~ (U)

It was also pointed out that WORTHY had the wrath of the United States authorities brought down upon him because he was critical of J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and that MAYFIELD, in his articles concerning WORTHY, by necessity has also been critical of the FBI. It is for this reason that MAYFIELD is not using his name in connection with his articles for the EVENING NEWS, inasmuch as he fears reprisals by the FBI when he returns to the United States, and that he may be "a second WILLIAM WORTHY." ~~(S)~~ (U)

It was also stated that MAYFIELD has pointed out that even though the United States would be successful in invading Cuba, which apparently it is planning at this time, imperialism is bound to be doomed inasmuch as the Cuban Revolution has left its imprint upon the downtrodden people of Latin America, and has shown the way for their liberation. ~~(S)~~ (U)

Evidence of CP Sympathies

In April, 1962, NY T-5 furnished information reflecting that JOHN HENRICK CLARKE communicated with JULIAN MAYFIELD [redacted] Accra, Ghana, during February, 1962. CLARKE expressed his appreciation for papers and pamphlets which MAYFIELD had sent him from Ghana. He stated that "Freedomways" is planning a special issue on Africa for the end of the year, and that MAYFIELD was being appointed their scout in Ghana to insure that they will receive some worthwhile contributions from Ghana. CLARKE expressed the hope that MAYFIELD will give SHIRLEY whatever help is necessary in securing this material and added that fifty copies of "Freedomways" would be sent by air express soon. (S)

The same source has furnished information reflecting that JOHN HENRIK CLARKE is a member of the staff of "Freedomways". (S) N.Y.

A characterization of "Freedomways Associates, Incorporated is contained in the Appendix.

The Winter, 1962, issue of "Freedomways" lists SHIRLEY GRAHAM as its editor.

APPENDIX

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The records of the Secretary of State, New York State Department of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1962, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "a Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.
